

REJECT CODES

065-0002 – When deleting location(s) that may or may not be on file.

039-0007 – When a cancellation is submitted and the carrier is not on record for original coverage.

This code is also used when coverage is received from a carrier that does not have the approval of The Department of Insurance to write Workers' Compensation in the State of Kentucky.

This code is also used when excess insurance is submitted for an insured in the Kentucky Self-Insurance Program.

039-0016 – When a FEIN is submitted with bogus number.

039-0018 – When employer name is not acceptable or multiple names are submitted as one.

001-0019 – When address line 1 is not acceptable.

001-0021 - When employer city is not acceptable.

039-0028 – When a reinstatement is received and there is no cancel date on file.

058-0304 – When a cancellation or reinstatement transaction is received with a different date that has already been canceled with an earlier or later date.

057-0000 – When duplicate information is received and information has already been received by a previous filing.

064-0000 – When deleting a location if the only location on file.